Sloan's Liniment

Read this unsolicited grateful testimony—
Not long ago my left knee became lame and sore. It pained me many restless nights. So serious did it become that I was forced to consider giving up my work when I chanced to think of Sloan's Liniment. Let me say—less than one bottle fixed me up.

MISS TYLER'S WILL

Christ Church Will Receive Is Rapidly Out-Growing Its
About $15,000 Now and Temporary House of $30,000 Later. Worship

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 2.—The will of Miss Roberta Tyler, which was admitted to probate, makes Christ Church Cathedral, of which she was a life-long member, the beneficiary of a considerable sum.

Miss Tyler left her residence, 1012 Fourth avenue, just beyond Kentucky, to Mrs. Powhatan Woodriddle.

To the Rev. M. M. Benton, who had long assisted Miss Tyler in the work for the church and philanthropy to which she devoted herself, is left an annuity for life of $1,500 a year.

All the rest of her estate goes to Christ Church Cathedral, and the fund set aside for Mr. Benton will go to the church after his death.

Miss Tyler had a life interest in the large Tyler estate, which she could not dispose of by will, but the sum which she can dispose of will give Christ Church Cathedral $15,000 at once. With the fund of Mr. Benton, which will be about $30,000, the church will receive a total of $45,000 eventually.

From one family in France seventy-two men enlisted for the European war.

SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH

The Second Baptist church has issued its Year Book for 1916, which shows that this youngest church in the city is making a steady and substantial growth under the pastoral care of Rev. W. R. Goodman. It now has 150 members, about 90 members having been added under the ministry of Mr. Goodman. The Sunday School, of which Frank Boyd is superintendent, is in a thriving condition, with an enrollment of 200 pupils and the attendance last Sunday was 180. It is probably the only Sunday School in the city in which there are more scholars than the church has members. The church is occupying a building that is intended to be the Sunday school room when the plans are fully carried out and a larger building erected on the front of the lot on the corner of Seventh street and Kentucky avenue. The needs of the church for room make it imperative that the new building be put up without much delay.

A Sense of Humor.

Green—"What is a sense of humor?"
Brown—"A sense of humor is that which makes you laugh at something that happens to somebody else which would make you angry if it happened to you!"

THE BEE LINE MARKER.

We are inclined to agree with the Henderson Glenner that the objection of the G. A. R. veterans to the Dixie Bee line marker is unfortunately taken. The Gleaner says:

It is indeed a surprise to note that any objection was raised to the marker for the Dixie Bee line.

The marker was a striking design, a giant eagle carrying the crossed flags of the North and of the South, with the words, "United in this Great Cause."

No trace of sectional feeling crept into the meetings of the delegates from Dixie and from the Yankee country. All rejoiced that boundary lines were to be wiped out, old animosities buried and the north and south united in this great work of progress.

But the Bee line builders reckoned without the old soldier of the G. A. R. With them the war is not really over and will never be over until taps sound for the last old veteran. They live in the past and at every reunion and meeting of a Grand Army Post they live over the bloody battles of the sixties.

These old soldiers registered such vigorous protests against crossing the two flags that the idea had to be abandoned.

It would have been less surprising had objections come from the Confederate veterans for it is the veterans of Dixie land who have reason to cherish bitterness. They lost their homes and their cause, but they are good philosophers and pretty good Christians as well.

We commend them to the consideration of the soldiers of the G. A. R. who live on the Dixie Bee line.

As a newspaper published in Yankee land we commend the sentiment and the spirit of the Gleaner editorial printed in Dixie ten miles away.

For four years the confederate flag represented a cause and a cause which we could not accept. But when the war was over the flag no longer represented principles but memories of heroism and sacrifice and suffering and those memories we cherish and honor and revere. They are part of our common American heritage, and we of the North claim participation in them with the South.

It was representatives of these feelings of the past that the confederate flag was intertwined with that other emblem which stands for our grandeur of the present and our hope of the future. For that reason we believe the emblem was both beautiful and appropriate.—Evansville Courier.

Squabble Over Rice.

The secretary of agriculture has declined the report of the Southern Rice Growers' association for a canvass of the department's estimate of the rice crop of 1915 on the ground that the estimate, published December 15, is accurate and that the association has not furnished any evidence in support of its contention that it was 10 per cent. too high.

CURFEW LAW GOES
IN EFFECT TONIGHT

Water Company Whistle Will Ring Out at 8 O'clock Sharp.

Under the provisions of an ordinance passed several years ago by the general council of the City of Paducah curfew will ring tonight at 8 o'clock, and all children under 16 years of age will be liable to arrest and fine if caught on the streets after that hour. Probation Officer John Bonds proposes to rigidly enforce the ordinance, with the assistance of the police.

The curfew ordinance provides that all children, under 16 years of age, shall be arrested if found upon the streets after 8 o'clock at night (in the winter months) without permission from their parents to be on the said city streets. Children accompanied by parent or guardian will not be amenable to this law.—Paducah News Democrat.

OVER TWO HUNDRED
MIDSHIPMEN TO RESIGN

One-Fourth Entire Membership Fail to Pass Half Yearly Examinations.

Annapolis, Md., Feb. 2.—Two hundred and twenty midshipmen or about one-fourth of the entire membership at the Naval academy, will be asked to resign because of their failure to pass the half yearly examinations. Many midshipmen claim that these examinations were much harder than usual, but this is denied by the instructors.

The number of failures in each class is said to be as follows: First or graduating class, 20; second, 60; third 60; fourth 30.

One explanation of the large number of failures is that instructors have been forbidden to indicate in any way to the midshipmen the character of the examination. The court of inquiry which investigated the scholastic methods of the academy recommended the abolishment of the "dope" system, as it was called, and an order forbidding the use of any kind of special help followed.

SEEKING PARDON FOR INGRAM CROCKETT

Frankfort Dispatch Says Literary Persons Are Promoting Campaign.

The following dispatch from Frankfort to the St. Louis Post Dispatch will be read with interest here:

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 31.—Literary persons of Kentucky are promoting a campaign to induce Gov. Stanley to pardon Ingram Crockett, who has written poetry that, it is contended, entitles him to the stamp of genius. While he is believed to have written a good deal of it since his imprisonment, none will be published while he is serving time, it is declared by those who claim to speak with authority.

Crockett was convicted about two years ago of embezzling from the Planters Bank of Henderson, of which he was cashier, more than $100,000. He is in the Eddyville prison.

Burning 60 Years.

Lansford, Pa., Feb. 2.—The famous mine fire, which has been raging now for more than sixty years, and which started at Summit Hill, near the spot where Phillip Ginter discovered anthracite coal in 1791, has burned through the immense concrete wall which the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company sank in front of it, deep down into the earth, several years ago, at a cost of more than a million dollars. It is now threatening the mammoth vein in the Panther creek valley, the largest and richest vein of anthracite in the world.
